

SCOTTY'S LITTLE SOLDIERS

Scotty's Little Soldiers is a charity dedicated to supporting bereaved British Forces children.

Inspired by the experience of Army widow Nikki Scott, the charity honours husband Corporal Lee Scott's memory - both as a loyal soldier and a loving father - and provides a practical yet personal way for the public at large to show their appreciation for those brave individuals who make the ultimate sacrifice in the service of their country.

SCOTTY'S MISSION:

"To provide relief from the effects of bereavement to young people up to and including the age of 18 years who have suffered the loss of a parent killed whilst serving with the armed forces of the crown."

HOW SCOTTY'S HELPS THE CHILDREN OF OUR FALLEN HEROES:

Nikki and Lee have 2 children, Kai and Brooke, so Nikki saw first hand the effect the loss of a loved one in these circumstances can have on a child. It was on a family holiday some 9 months later that Nikki saw her son Kai, 5 at the time, laugh and smile for the first time since his Dad's death. She realised that there must be so many more children who had also lost a parent in the British Armed Forces but hadn't had that opportunity to smile again. She decided to set up the charity Scotty's Little Soldiers to do just that, to help their children smile.

The charity provides opportunities for the children to smile again by offering holiday's at it's Scotty Lodges, gifts at difficult times of the year, special experiences and an amazing Christmas party.

As well as these fun activities the charity also provides access to professional bereavement counselling and a range of grants to help with the children's personal development.

These grants can cover the cost of music lessons, swimming clubs, after school activities, driving lessons and even University tuition fees.

The charity now supports hundreds of bereaved British Forces' children across the UK, many of whom are still very young and will rely on the activities offered by Scotty's for years to come.

WHO DOES SCOTTY'S HELP?

The charity supports any child who has lost a parent who was a serving member of the British Armed Forces at the time of their death. Army, Navy & RAF families are all supported as are both Regular and Reserve members. Their parent's death does not need to have been in conflict.
