

Celebrating the Royal Wedding

A Royal Gift

We are absolutely overwhelmed to have been personally selected by Prince Harry and Meghan Markle as one of their chosen charities to benefit from donations marking the Royal wedding. Having met Prince Harry at Buckingham Palace last year, I know that helping the children of fallen British Forces heroes sits closely to his heart.

We are looking forward to celebrating the Royal Wedding in style and we're hoping you'll all be getting involved too. We have lots of great fundraising ideas for the occasion and here are just a few of them. Be sure to download our full Royal Wedding Fundraising Pack for more details.

If you'd like to make a donation to our Royal Wedding fund you can do so at scottyslittlesoldiers.co.uk

Best wishes
